Section 119.07(3)(i)1, Florida Statutes, provides that the home addresses, telephone numbers, and photographs of active or former law enforcement personnel; the home addresses, telephone numbers, photographs, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such personnel; and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such personnel are exempt from the public records provisions of Section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes.

This exemption provides that the Board shall not furnish such records to any person except the employee or his legal representative without written authorization from the employee or, unless otherwise prohibited by law, it receives a subpoena issued in a civil or criminal action from a court of competent jurisdiction where the party seeking the records gave proper notice to the employee or his legal representative.

C. Since, under Government in the Sunshine, trustees can only discuss issues involving medical records of an employee in a public meeting, such an authorization should be signed by an employee prior to discussion by the Board.
