Attachment To Designation Of Beneficiary Rules Applicable To Change A Beneficiary

- 1. You can change your beneficiary at any time before you retire. In order to change or revoke any designation of beneficiary, the change or revocation must be in writing, signed by you before a notary public, and filed with the Board of Trustees.
- 2. A change in the family status (marriage, divorce or birth of children) will not revoke or cancel your designation of beneficiary.
- 3. If your designated beneficiary dies before you, or if you fail to name a designated beneficiary, death benefits may be paid to your estate.
- 4. After you retire, a change in beneficiary for an optional joint or survivor benefit may only be made twice. Also, in such a case, the change in beneficiary must be approved by the Board of Trustees and evidence of good health of the removed beneficiary may be required. The removed beneficiary must, in any case, be alive when the new designation of beneficiary is filed.
